Kai for Christmas

It was wonderful to have so many families, friends, whanau and community join us for our Christmas in the playground yesterday afternoon. Unfortunately the thunderstorm last Thursday meant that the concert was postponed and had to be scheduled in the school day.

The children had a super time performing for you and were very excited. We also donated 16 banana boxes of food goods which the Salvation Army collected from our school gates as our entry donation. It was a brilliant effort by everyone.

Again this year we have been delighted to be able to support our community through the Salvation Army.
